GRATITUDE IS THE BEST ATTITUDE

What outlook are we carrying forth into the day? Are we feeling fearful about the circumstances confronting us? Do we dread a planned meeting? Are we worried about the welfare of a friend or partner? Whatever our present outlook, its power over the outcome, of our day is profound. Our attitude in regard to any situation attracting our attention influences the outcome. Sometimes to our favor, often to our disfavor if our attitude is negative.

Thankfulness toward life guarantees the rewards we desire, the rewards we seek too often from an ungrateful stance. The feeling of gratitude is foreign to many of us. We came to this program feeling worthless, sometimes rejected, frequently depressed. It seemed life had heaped problems in our laps, and so it had. The more we lament what life "gave us", the more reasons we were given to lament. We got just what we expected. We still get just what we expect. The difference is that the program has offered us the key to higher expectations. Gratitude for the good in our lives increases the good.

I have the personal power to influence my day;
I will make it a good one.

Word Search Puzzle-Step 9

Although this puzzle is essentially a game, alcoholism and addictions are not. It is not the intent of this puzzle to lighten the seriousness of our disease; it is simply a puzzle with the topic of recovery.
